

2000

just imagine...

LEGO® has been voted "Toy of the Century"...

When the international press voted LEGO® the best toy of the 20th century we were very proud. We have always been dedicated to providing the means of nurturing children's imaginative and creative capabilities. And now more than ever we offer children limitless opportunities to seek out new ways of expressing their creativity. Today LEGO® is not just a toy, but a way of learning about the world – a bridge between the imagination and reality. It's a way of life.

...now we're aiming for the next.

CREATE A STYLE

SOUNDS, 0-3 months

Even before birth baby can hear sounds such as mother's heartbeat. By placing the Musical Apple close to your baby the harmonic sounds can create a safe and familiar environment.

COLOURS, 3-6 months

Some of the first colours babies learn to distinguish are the primary colours: red, yellow, green and blue. Bright colours stimulate a baby's curiosity. As you rattle the happy little brick, baby will soon look at it, reach for, and rattle it.

CRAWLING, 6-9 months

Push Walter Worm into the apple to hear the music or touch the apple so that it wobbles. The sound, movement and the bright colours will motivate babies to crawl over and investigate.

STACKING, 9-12 months

At this stage most babies are interested in combining things, and stacking objects on top of each other is really great fun. Show your baby how to fit the rattle brick on top of the worm and soon small, busy hands will take over.

During the first 2 years, your soft caresses, gentle sounds, and the stimulating colours you introduce, help your baby learn more about the senses. With this in mind, we've created the LEGO BABY range with features that provide different forms of sensual stimulation as your baby grows. So the LEGO BABY plaything you buy today, will continue to help your baby for months and months to come.

Musical Apple

Press the worm into the apple and it plays a harmonic tune as the worm slowly comes out of the apple again. As your baby learns to crawl the apple can be used as a stimulus for baby. From birth.

2117

Soft Activity Centre

A soft activity centre with lots of LEGO BABY elements to create new surprises to keep your baby happy and stimulated. The Soft Activity Centre can be hung up or used on the floor. From birth.

2468

LEGO BABY My First Rattle

By listening, looking and turning the rattle your baby can be stimulated to develop their senses and motor skills. From birth.

2517

Rattle Friends

Are soft to the touch and colourful for your baby to play with. The set contains 2 rattle elements that fit snugly into small hands. From birth.

2514

Activity Friends

Friendly faces, different sounds and bright colours attract the attention of eager, growing minds. Each part of the toy has different sections to stimulate your baby. From birth.

2095 Pee-Po Ball

Children love to roll things, but the Pee-Po Ball never gets too far out of reach. New peeping heads, which give that element of surprise, pop up from the holes in the ball every time it is turned. As the Pee-Po Ball does not roll very far it can be used to encourage your child to crawl. A polar bear accompanies the ball for extra play value and can be placed on any of the peeping heads. From 3 months.

2000 Sally Starfish

A brightly coloured teether ideal for chewing but also great to hold. Sally is red and yellow, which are very visible primary colours for your baby to see and learn to recognise. From 3 months.

2046 Let's Go Fishing

An ideal way to keep baby busy in the bathtub and a fun way to encourage coordination skills. From 6 months.

2031
Toby Turtle and Friend
Toby and his friend are fun to play with in or out of the water. Toby floats and, as water is gently poured on top of him, he will move forward in the water. From 6 months.

2097 Clarence Caterpillar and Friends

Provides great entertainment as Clarence can be wheeled around or shaken to hear the rattle sound. If a little pressure is applied to Clarence he will bounce up and down for extra fun. A bumble bee and ladybird give Clarence extra play value as they can be stacked onto his body. From 6 months.

2001 Three-In-One

Three colourful toys to stimulate touch, sight and sound. Walter Walrus rattles, Sammy teether is great to chew on, and the pliable tree is great fun in your baby's hands. Stacking can also take place and as with all LEGO BABY products the three-in-one elements can be fitted together. From 3 months.

2030 Freddie Frog

A great little set which can be used at bathtime or during any water play activity. The friendly looking frog is fun to look at and great for those little hands to investigate. When you press the top of Freddie's head he will wink and squirt water at you. From 6 months.

2098 Tub Boat Tommy

For playing in water and on land. When the boat is submerged it will whistle through its chimney. On land the chimney can be used as a small shower for Tommy. Ideal toy for bathtime play. From 6 months.

2013 Fun Train

A great train which includes Timmy and friends and a number of brightly coloured elements some of which rattle. All these elements can be stacked on board the Fun Train for added play value. From 6 months.

2071 Play Plane

With pilot and spinning propeller. From 6 months.

2524

My Racing Bugs

See who wins the race as you pull back the motors of the waddling ladybird and hopping bee! This is fun and exciting and helps to develop motor skills. From 6 months.

2526

Tim & Tom's Adventure

Push me, and off we go! Discovering that the toy can be made to move motivates small hands to try again and again. Children cannot resist trying to catch Tim and Tom. From 9 months.

Your baby is naturally curious and trying to master the world around them. Toys in the LEGO BABY range help you give your baby fun ways to learn. Shake the toys and hear them rattle. Push them and they move across the floor. Before you know it, your baby will be crawling after these colourful friends!

Help your baby see what they can do!

2593

Disney Baby Mickey

Baby Mickey takes a ride and helps baby learn to crawl. Combining Baby Mickey with the other bricks stimulates discovery and motor skills. From 6-24 months.

2594

Disney Baby Mickey & Disney Baby Minnie Playground

By playing together, Baby Mickey and Baby Minnie help develop motor skills and introduce baby to role-play. The building plate is fun to build up and knock down. From 6-24 months.

2592

Disney Baby Mickey & Disney Baby Minnie

Plenty of bricks mean many possible combinations and many exciting challenges for baby. Building up and knocking down are always fun with Baby Mickey and Baby Minnie. From 6-24 months.

It may only be a simple act, but imagine how wonderful your baby will feel the first time they fit 2 blocks together to create a new shape! How excited they will be building a tower that goes higher and higher! How challenged they'll be as they try to put a round peg into a square hole! LEGO BABY provides interesting ways for your baby to experiment and learn.

LEGO BABY Fun Sorter

A real challenge for babies. With your help your child can stack things high to knock them down again as well as learn how to fit the different shapes into the different holes. The set also includes a base plate. An ideal toy which encourages the use of lots of basic skills. From 8 months.

KNIGHTS' KINGDOM

The Battle of the King's Treasure

King Leo and his brave knights live at the castle.
But Cedric the Bull and his evil robbers
lurk in the Black Forest and plan to get hold of the King's treasure.

King Leo

Richard the Strong

Cedric the Bull

Gilbert the Bad

Will the robbers get hold of the treasure?

The evil robbers are attacking the castle.

Oh, no. The tower is falling.

Cedric the Bull
is ready to make his move. Let the battle commence.

The quick-thinking knights use the bricks to launch a counterattack ...

... and ram the tower
right into the robbers.

WEB EXTRAS

Think you know what LEGO TECHNIC is all about? Think again, because we have got news for you.

If you want to minister to the needs of your inner speed demon, look for the boxes with the Create 'N' Race sign. It's a series of models and net games where speed and action are combined with lots of technical details. And they all connect to the Internet in different ways. Just click www.LEGO.com/createNrace.

Here you will experience that the LEGO TECHNIC Silver Champion is not just an exciting model on your desk. It's also a game on the Web – a formidable racing game

If you want a bigger picture of the Silver Champion it is available as a screen saver and wallpaper for your PC. And if you want to build another model, building instructions for another fabulous racer, the LEGO TECHNIC Street Sensation, are also available on the Internet.

So check out the Web for all the Create'nRace news.

WEB EXTRAS

The LEGO TECHNIC RoboRiders give you access to hunt the monster virus on the Web. To defeat all forms of the virus you will need all 6 RoboRiders. Just as you need all 6 to build the MEGA RoboRider. Complete building instructions can be found on the RoboRider Web site.

The hunt for the monster virus involves 6 different Internet-based games. With the Swamp RoboRider you are equipped to deal with hazardous conditions on slippery paths, where tentacles try to drag you into the swamp. To track down the virus on burning lava streams and poisonous gases look for the Lava RoboRider. The Frost RoboRider will help you find the virus monster in freezing temperatures while dodging lethal icicles that shoot deadly spears. And when rocks and crystals are your enemy, take along the Onyx RoboRider. The Dust RoboRider makes windy deserts and deadly quicksand that much safer to deal with. And when you are exposed to acid rain, poisonous fumes and swinging wrecking boulders, look to the Power RoboRider.

If you destroy all 6 forms of the virus, prepare yourself for a fantastic surprise. And reward yourself with PC wallpaper of your favourite RoboRider. All found on www.LEGO.com/roboriders.
