MATORANES

The Matoran have tamed two four-legged creatures and use them to harvest air from the underwater sea weeds. They are able to transport heavy loads across the seabed and will bite or shoot at anyone they don't consider a friend.
Far below the surface, in the darkness of the great ocean depths where no Toa has ever gone before, lies a strange and mysterious habitat known as "The Pit". It's a place full of unknown dangers and bizarre creatures, ruled by six merciless deep-sea monsters whose like the surface world has never seen. They dominate a place where the rule is to eat – or be eaten. Welcome to a world of darkness. Welcome to the realm of the Barraki!
THE RETURN TO THE ISLAND

During their journey to find the Mask of Life on the floating island of Vuya Nuvi, Jaller and his team of Matoran are struck by energy from the mysterious Red Star, transforming them into Toa Inika beings of energy. The Toa Inika, unlike other Toa, have organic instead of metallic masks. The good Inika use powerful Zamer Launchers and huge energy weapons to fight their enemies.
Since times of old the floating island of Voya Nui has been guarding an ancient secret: the Mask of Life. An evil gang, the Piraka, has arrived on the island to seize this all-powerful relic – and they’re determined not to let anything or anyone stand in their way ... The evil Piraka are equipped with poisonous-looking Zamor Spheres and giant-sized weapons. Turn out the light and see their evil smiles glow in the dark!

A big bundle of muscles with an even bigger heart, Axonn helps the Matoran in their resistance against the evil Piraka. His giant axe slices through even the hardest rock as if it were butter. Virtually invulnerable and able to make lava balls with his bare hands.

In an attempt to get hold of the Mask of Life, the mysterious 7th Piraka has been fused to the back of the Fenrakk spider. The lethal pair now waits for anyone brave – or foolish! – enough to attempt to get hold of the mask.
TAKING BACK THE ISLAND

To save Metru Nui, the Toa Hordika must besiege the Visorak. "The Battle for Metru Nui" is the ultimate confrontation, but before that can happen, many obstacles have to be overcome.
