LEGO®

From rattles to computerised robots. - the excitement builds!

DUPLO pre-school toys offer a unique world of colourful blocks specially designed for little hands and curious minds. Fun and safe to play with – with lots of sounds and functions to explore for children between 0-5 years. See the DUPLO range in your nearest good toy store.

LEGO® Sets for free and creative building. Naturally all sets build together. Gradually they contain more special elements to match the child's growing skills. New electric system elements add further to the fun and imagination. For all children between 3-16 years. See page 4-31.

YEAR BY YEAR – step by step, from babyhood to early teens, the uniquely interlinked systems from the LEGO® Group build continuous creative play right through childhood. The big DUPLO blocks build together with the famous LEGO bricks, which in turn are compatible with the advanced LEGO TECHNIC system.

No other toy system offers so much play value over so many years. Childhood just wouldn't be the same without it.

Maximum temperature for storage and washing.
(Electric parts not washable).

Technic

Technical Sets for advanced LEGO builders.

Thanks to many special elements such as gears and pistons, the models work just like the real thing. Several sets have electric motors or pneumatic power. There is even a programmable control centre.

The official age is from 7-16 years, but dads often join in!

See pages 32-38.

LEGOBASIC

From 3-12 years

Open the new Playcase and see what comes out!

The 2- or 3-module Playcases contain lots of LEGO® bricks and elements. As with the other BASIC Sets your child can make almost any toy the imagination can think of!

LEGO

Castle

From 5-12 years

It was a dark and stormy night...

– the luminous ghost appeared just as the old clock struck 12. Robin and his friends ran for their secret cave while the Knights secured the drawbridge and closed the Black Fortress with its hinged walls. And yet ... it was just a very friendly ghost!

Black Knight Castle

Hideaway. It opens to reveal a hidden room.

Whose side are you on; Governor Broadside's or Captain Roger's?

The well-fed Governor Broadside from Fort Sabre on the biggest island in the Tropical Sea tries to maintain law and order.

Unfortunately the pirate Captain Roger and his fellows from the Pirate's Nest on the neighbouring island aren't quite so peaceful.

Governor Broadside wishes the pirates were oceans away – he simply loves peace and quiet!

Captain Roger only has one thing on his mind, to capture the treasure from the Governor!

Bos'n Will is Roger's right hand man aboard the dreaded pirateship Dark Shark, which threatens Fort Sabre and the Governor's ship, Sea Hawk!

In the sea lurk dangerous sharks. It's no mere coincidence that Captain Roger has a wooden leg!

See all the products on the next pages or read more about the pirates' exciting adventures in the special comic (6255), sold separately.

The spring-loaded cannons
"fire" the small 1-stud bricks.
(Entirely safely!)

Naturally the sharks can open their frightful jaws!

PIRATES

From 5-12 years

Some 275 years ago in the Caribbean...

Those were the days when swashbuckling pirates roamed the seas in search of golden treasure stored in places like Fort Sabre.

pneumatic

From 9-16 years

Press the airpump, flick the switch - and move the earth!

1. TECHNIC pneumatic systems work by means of compressed air which is generated by precision-made airpumps.
2. The airflow is controlled by a special valve. Thus the relevant part of the model moves as compressed air flows into its own air-cylinder.
3. The JCB is just one example of how realistically the TECHNIC pneumatic system works.

8854
Mobile Crane with Pneumatic Hoist with steering gear.

From 11-16 years

Now you can programme your TECHNIC models!

Now you can control advanced LEGO® TECHNIC models with a 9 V TECHNIC Control Centre with dual-memory, repeat mode, pause function, joy-stick – you name it! Two electric motors are included in each set. You can easily add a third motor to the colour-coded computer terminal.

Programming Step-by-Step:

1. Press one of the memory-buttons and programme your model by using the round joystick. Up to 50 different movements and commands can be stored in the computer's memory.
2. Press the go-button and watch your model as it carries out exactly the same movements you just programmed it to do. Press twice and the movements are repeated endlessly – until you press STOP!
3. If you want to make a pause while programming – maybe to change your input – just press a button and give the computer new directions. YOU are in charge – the computer simply carries out your instructions!

The robot can be programmed to grasp a brick, lift it – and gently lower it into one of the 2 containers. All by itself!

Watch the digger as its loader repeats every movement you just taught it.

The drawing machine is pure magic as it makes a sketch apparently all by itself. But you made the original!

The Control Centre works with other models too!

In fact, any motorized model made from your own LEGO® or TECHNIC bricks can be controlled. A third TECHNIC motor 8720 can even be added, since the Control Centre has 3 motor-terminals (2 motors are already included in the set).

8094
TECHNIC Control Centre.
Contains a programmable computer, detailed instruction manual, two 9v motors and numerous components to build four exciting, working models.

Six 1.5 V batteries (not included in the set) power both the computer and the electric motors. Use ordinary alkaline batteries size HP7/AA.

Legoland®

The Ultimate LEGO® Experience

The LEGOLAND Park in Billund, Denmark is a 20 acre wonderland which attracts a million visitors each year to central Jutland. In addition to landscaped scenes from many parts of the world, built from literally millions of LEGO bricks, there are car, train and boat rides; a life size Wild West Town called LEGOREDO; restaurants; exhibitions of antique dolls and clockwork toys and, of course, playtables with piles of LEGO bricks to play with.

There is so much to see and do for all the family that a full day is hardly enough time to enjoy it all.

Most travel agents will be able to tell you about tours which include a visit to the Park.
